"The following are the additional byelaws for the regulation of buildings in the H. A. Sanitary board area.

Bye-laws for regulating the construction and restoration of buildings of every description, the materials of which they shall be made, their ventilation, the drainage, etc., and to prevent the construction of buildings without obtaining adequate license from the Sanitary Board for the layout and construction of streets.

In these byelaws, thereby anything repugnant to the subject or context, the Expression "Building" means a house, hut, shed, or any structure, temporary or permanent, whether intended for human habitation or not, and also includes a wall.

1 No building of any description shall be erected without the written permission of the President or Vice President of the Board. In the event of the said permission being refused, the reasons for such refusal shall be stated.

2 Every application for permission to build shall be in writing, presented to the Executive Chief Officer, and shall in addition to the Plan, in duplicate of the building contain the following particulars.—

(a) Name of locality.

(b) Size of building.

(c) Description of building and number of rooms with their dimensions.

(d) Number of doors and windows with measurements;

(e) Purpose for which the building is to be erected, and where it is to be used as a dwelling, the number of persons are to occupy it.

(f) Arrangements for drainage.

(g) Location of the latrine;

(h) The level at which the foundation and lowest floor of such building are proposed to be laid.

(i) Nature of flooring;

(j) Provision of roof ventilation;

(k) Nature of roof.

(l) Time for completion.

Provided that no such application or permission as aforesaid shall be required in the case of any building erected by or under the authority of General Manager of H.A.L. and intended to be used for the purpose of the respective factory only.

3 With the previous sanction in writing by the Board, or in urgent cases of the President or Vice President of the Board, the Executive Officer, may cause any building erected in contravention of these provisions, to be pulled down or altered, after giving 24 hours notice in writing to the occupant or owner thereof.

4 The owner of every uninhabited building or portion of a building, which is in a dilapidated and dangerous condition, shall be bound when required, in writing by the Board to dismantle the same and to have the walls levelled to the ground, failing which the Executive Officer may cause such building dismantled with the previous sanction of the Board.

5 The owner or occupier or every building shall keep his premises clean, in good repair, and in a satisfactory Sanitary condition.

6 No person shall allow any latrine, cess pool, or receptacle or filth of any house or premises to remain in filthy condition after six hours notice from the Executive Officer or neglect to comply with the order by the Executive Officer to whitewash or disinfect any premises which he owns or occupies, or to clean, repair, fill up or cover any well, tank, reservoir, marshy ground or excavation or to remove rank vegetation or other matter, within such premises.

7 The owner of any building or his representative or tenant shall be held responsible for any breach of the byelaws.

For every breach of the byelaw, the offender shall be liable to a fine on conviction before a Magistrate, not exceeding Rs. 100 (Rupees One Hundred).

1393 Vice President.
